

Eastfield Revitalised

Melbourne, Australia

Eastfield Revitalised embodies the essence of the modern community space; a public realm designed to facilitate a new dynamic of community connection and socialisation.

The project exudes sophistication and elegance; designed around the distinctive native flora weaving effortlessly through the cascading, gestural geometric forms, transforming a place for a local shopping/social experience into the heart of a revitalised and modern Croydon South.

